Course Structure:

- Pre-arrival online exam tasks and support.
- General English classes at the appropriate CEFR level.
- Teacher-guided exam preparation in our Personal Study Programme.

How do we do it?

Pre-arrival:

An online module to introduce you to the structure of the exam and useful exam strategies.

During the course:

- 10 or 20 hours a week of General English at the appropriate CEFR level.
- 5 hours of PSP per week.

Personal Study Programme (PSP) includes:

- Guided exam practice with a designated exam teacher there to help with your strategy and any language-related questions you may have.
- The opportunity to practise the speaking component of the exam with feedback from the teacher.
- Feedback on exam writing tasks and advice on how to improve your writing score.
- Access to a large number of past papers to practise each component of the exam and access to a wide range of vocabulary and grammar resources targeting the language you need to do well in the exam.
