International House (IH) Newcastle offers courses for adult and younger learner students on the same premises, but students are kept separate. All children are supervised by IH staff on any occasions where some adults may be present, e.g. during break-times in school common areas, as well as during the educational activities outside the classroom, lunches and social programme excursions. All teachers, staff and service providers involved with children at IH Newcastle have valid police/ security checks. All children are met at the airport and sent back to the airport only by chauffeur service drivers with valid police/security checks.

Children are placed with trusted and inspected homestay providers with valid police/security checks. There will be no other adults, other than the homestay hosts, staying in the same house without valid police/security checks. The school will place students in pairs whenever possible, and all students are given a travel pass and full travel information so they can be confident about the short journeys they make. IH does not supervise students aged 13 and over when travelling to/from school, homestay or social events organised by the school. However, children can call the emergency number at any time. If a child is more than 10 minutes late for any class or activity, a procedure will begin to locate the child. It is important that the school is informed if students are going to be late or are not going to attend.

IH Newcastle has strict curfew rules for all students who are under 18 years of age:

All under-16 years old students

must be home by

Sunday to Thursday by 21:00

Friday to Saturday by 21:30

All 16 and 17 years old students

must be home by

Sunday to Thursday

Friday to Saturday

by 22:00

by 22:30

If a child repeatedly disregards the rules that have been put into place for everyone's safety and well-being, the school reserves the right to exclude the student from further school activities without any refund. All young learners are expected to abide by the UK laws affecting children (under 18 years old), even though they may be different from those in their home country.

I authorise the school to take my child for emergency medical assessment and to consent on my behalf to any necessary medical treatment for my child, including the use of anaesthetics.

Are there any advance medical directives that we need to be aware of?

I agree to the processing of my personal data by the school in line with the school's policy and the principles of the General Data Protection Regulation for the purposes of being enrolled, classed and supervised as a student of International House Newcastle. Occasionally we photograph or film student activities at our school or on our social programme to share via Facebook, Twitter or Instagram, and this is sometimes used for promotional purposes. Are you happy for the school to do this with your images? Please tick: Yes No
